Description

A fine pair of late Qing dynasty Chinese carved armchairs, featuring intricate openwork carving to the backrest with traditional foliate and auspicious motif designs. The arm supports are decorated with finely detailed pierced panels, and the apron is adorned with subtle scrolling motifs. Constructed with square legs with scroll detail, joined by stretchers, these chairs are both sturdy and heavy. The rich, deep patina enhances the beauty of the hardwood, making them both decorative and functional statement pieces. W 64cm (25.25") D 47cm (18.5") H 99cm (39") Seat H 51cm (20")
