Description

An elegant Edwardian mahogany floor-standing bookcase or display cabinet, fitted with a single glazed door divided into slender mullions. The cabinet opens to reveal two fixed shelves, offering practical storage for books, glassware, or collectibles. Raised on shaped cabriole legs, this piece combines functionality with refined Edwardian style. Very Good antique condition overall. The cabinet shows light wear consistent with age and use. Glass is intact, door closes securely, and shelves are sturdy. Some minor surface marks as expected, adding to its authentic charm. This versatile cabinet would serve well as a compact bookcase, display cabinet, or even a stylish gin cabinet in a period or eclectic interior.
