Description

A fine Edwardian two-tier occasional table, dating to the early 20th century. The table features a shaped circular top with a beautifully figured grain and a scalloped edge, supported by slender cabriole legs united by a shaped lower tier. Its elegant proportions and decorative design make it ideal as a side, lamp, or display table. Very Good antique condition. The table retains a rich polished patina with only minor surface wear consistent with age and use. Sturdy and ready for use. A versatile Edwardian piece, perfect for a traditional interior or as an accent in a modern eclectic setting.
