Description

An attractive oil on canvas depicting a thatched cottage at twilight a woman walking through a gate by Charles William Norton (c.1870-1946). Charles Norton was a London artist and exhibited at the Royal Academy in 1928. The work is confidently done with wonderful use of colour and light, the whole scene seeming to pop from the canvas. Signed lower left. The work is housed in an ornate gilt frame. Both work and frame remain in a very good condition. Inscription verso 'Charles Norton | 103 Deodar Road, Putney'. Charles Norton is listed as residing at 103 Deodar Road in records dated 1917 and 1928 (the latter being the Royal Academy Exhibition artist list).
