Description

A fine pair of Victorian mahogany dining chairs, each featuring a shaped and carved back splat with foliate detail, raised on square tapering legs with spade feet. The drop-in seats have been newly upholstered in a richly patterned fabric with floral motifs in warm red and gold tones, combining comfort with period style. Seat Height: 49 cm Very Good antique condition. The mahogany frames are sturdy with a warm patina, showing minor age-related marks consistent with their history. Upholstery is new, clean, and ready for use. A versatile set of two dining chairs, perfect for use at the table, as side chairs, or as elegant accent seating in a traditional interior.
