Description

Pair of Antique Silver-Plated Mappin & Webb Wine Coasters featuring a turned wooden base with concentric ring decoration and a central silver-plated boss, surrounded by an elegant, pierced gallery with beaded rim – circa 1920. * A fine addition to a Victorian or Georgian-inspired dining table, they remain useful today for presenting wine bottles or decanters in style. Measurements: Height: 1 1/4" (approx. 3cm) Diameter: 5 1/2" (approx. 14cm) Total weight: 357g In good condition – Good antique condition overall. The wood retains a rich, warm patina, and the silver plate shows only light wear consistent with age and use. Solid and ready for use on the dining table.
