Description

A Lovely Pair of Antique Victorian Brass Coat Hooks beautifully made in solid brass with a decorative twisted shaft leading down to a sturdy double-arm design. The hooks are mounted on circular backplates, each pierced with multiple fixing holes for secure attachment to the wall – circa 1880. * These hooks would most likely have been used in a hallway, cloakroom, or gentleman's dressing room, offering a practical yet stylish storage solution. They remain entirely functional today and would make a striking period feature in a home, stable, or country house interior. Measurements: Height: 8 1/2" (approx. 21.5cm) Total weight of pair: 275g In good condition – Good antique condition with light wear and patina consistent with age.
