Description

Regency mahogany side cabinet An elegant Regency mahogany side cabinet, crafted with fine attention to detail and showcasing the rich patina of well-figured mahogany. The piece features distinctive rope twist half columns to each side, a decorative motif inspired by Britain's naval supremacy and the victory at the Battle of Trafalgar (1805). The cabinet is fitted with a long frieze drawer above a pair of panelled cupboard doors, opening to reveal an interior with a cellarette drawer — designed for the secure storage of bottles. The drawer fronts are adorned with gilt brass rosette ring handles, adding a touch of bold Regency character. Standing on short turned feet, this cabinet embodies both style and function, making it a refined addition to any collection. Key Features • Period: Regency, c.1810-1820 • Material: Richly patinated mahogany • Decorative rope twist half columns celebrating Britain's naval victories • Single frieze drawer with lion's head brass ring pulls • Lower cupboard doors with internal cellarette drawer • Turned feet for balanced elegance • Dimensions: 103 cm wide (44 ½ ins) 48cms deep (19ins) 99cms high (39ins) "There is scarcely anything in the worl...
