Description

Beautiful and substantial Georgian dresser made from solid mahogany, dating from around 1830. This impressive piece features a long rectangular top with a rich aged patina, above three spacious drawers fitted with elegant brass oval handles. Standing on square legs with brass castors and joined by stretchers, it combines sturdiness with timeless style. A classic Georgian piece that will make a wonderful addition to a dining room, living room, or hallway – offering both storage and decorative presence. Very good antique condition, strong and sturdy, with minor age-related marks as expected for a piece of this period.
