Description

A fine set of four late Victorian dining chairs crafted in mahogany with inlaid detailing, dating to around 1880. These elegant chairs feature beautifully shaped backs with delicate inlay to the centre splat, complemented by finely turned and fluted front legs. The drop-in seats are upholstered in a period-style fabric with muted tones, enhancing their authentic Victorian character. Strong, sturdy, and full of charm, this set would make a refined addition to a traditional dining room, study, or period interior. Overall, a highly decorative and collectable set of antique chairs. Seat Height: 48 cm Very Good antique condition with expected age-related wear. Upholstery serviceable but could be updated to taste.
