Description

A charming pair of Edwardian occasional chairs crafted from beech, dating from around 1910. The design features simple slat backs with a delicate carved shell motif on the crest rail, complemented by stunning etched floral decoration on the seats. These intricate patterns give the chairs real character and make them stand out as decorative as well as functional pieces. The chairs stand on elegant turned legs, joined by stretchers for stability. Their light beech colour and natural patina highlight the craftsmanship and authenticity of the period. Perfect for use in a bedroom, hallway, or as accent chairs in a cottage-style interior. These chairs are full of charm and Edwardian character. Very Good antique condition with some age-related wear, adding to their authenticity and appeal. Seat Height: 44 cm
