Description

A handsome antique Edwardian oak double bed dating from circa 1910. In a richly figured quarter sawn oak, the headboard and footboard are of a panelled construction with attractive beading decoration and a central Jacobean revival motif. It stands on tapered legs with bun feet. The headboard and footboard are joined together with screw in side rails and is easily assembled or dis-assembled with a Vono spanner (provided). Good warm patina and colour. Comprising of a headboard, footboard and iron rails. (no base included). Construction/Wood: Oak / Oak veneered plywood panels Condition Report: Beautiful patina and good colour. Wear and marks commensurate with age. There are some filled holes to the bottom of the frame below where the hitches have been moved and some small gaps along the joints of the panels which have shrunk over time.
