Description

An elegant centre table showcasing a polished marble top with swirling black, white, and grey veining. The dark wood base is richly embellished with mother-of-pearl inlay, forming delicate floral motifs across the apron and cabriole legs. Curved legs with stylised feet and a shaped stretcher lend balance and refinement. The craftsmanship and decorative style suggest an Asian origin, possibly Chinese or Japanese, circa late 19th to early 20th century. This beautifully crafted table offers both charm and character, perfect for discerning collectors or interiors that value craftsmanship and heritage.
