Description

George II mahogany padfoot table This George II mahogany padfoot table is of a lovely and useful small size. The 4 tapered mahogany legs that stand on pad feet. The rounded drop flaps are supported by the gated legs that swing out to add the support. The George II mahogany padfoot table when the flaps are up it is of an oval shape. You can use this table with just one flap in place or with both in place. This makes a very good small dining table for an apartment or cottage. The cabinetmaker used the wonderful dense mahogany that was freely available when this was first made
