Description

Antique 19th Century Diorama Guiding Star Boat in Berwick Harbour This large English 19th century antique diorama is of a boat called the Guiding Star which was built in 1889 and sailed from Berwick harbour in Northumberland, as in the painting. In incredible condition, very well painted background with Berwick harbour buildings, the pier and other maritime boats at sea. The actual boat is hand carved in pine and comes out, proud off the painting background. Mounted in the original frame. Great colour with a wonderful surface and all totally original. Dimensions Height: 49cm (19.44") Width: 78cm (30.95") Depth: 12cm (4.76")
