Description

A bold and finely carved Japanese tiger sculpture, rendered in richly patinated wood and captured in a moment of dynamic intensity. A dynamic and expressive Japanese tiger sculpture, masterfully carved from richly toned wood. Captured mid-roar, the tiger's muscular form and fierce expression convey both power and grace, with intricate detailing that highlights the animal's fur texture, sinewy limbs, and distinctive striped pattern. The naturalistic base, resembling rocky terrain, grounds the piece in a wild setting, enhancing its dramatic presence. A striking decorative object with sculptural depth. A commanding decorative piece well-suited to collectors of Japanese art or interiors seeking a statement of strength and artistry.
