Description

This antique Welsh oak deuddarn, also known as a court cupboard, is a fine example of traditional Welsh craftsmanship. Constructed from rich, solid oak, it features warm, aged patina that highlights the natural grain. The piece is divided into two main sections: an upper section with 3 panelled doors adorned with arched, carved panels & brass drop handles, and a lower section with two large panelled doors and three drawers above, also fitted with decorative brass handles. Height 174cm x Width 144cm x Depth 56cm
