Description

A striking Japanese Tansu chest, distinguished by its vibrant red lacquered finish and practical yet artful arrangement of drawers. Comprising drawers of varying sizes. Each drawer is fitted with traditional iron handles and escutcheons, their aged patina complementing the richly worn lacquer. The front has a label bearing Japanese script suggest provenance and cultural significance. The chest's compact form and compartmentalised design reflect its original use in merchant or household settings, where portability and organisation were paramount. A fine example of Japanese craftsmanship, ideal for interiors seeking a bold accent with historical depth and functional charm.
