Description

Set of Six Regency Mahogany Bar Back Dining Chairs with Sabre Legs A fine matched set of six Regency period dining chairs, crafted in well-figured mahogany, circa 1820. Each chair displays a curved bar back top rail above a single carved vertical slat, framing drop-in seats upholstered in a neutral oatmeal chenille fabric. The elegant stance is defined by sabre front legs and gently raked rear supports, characteristic of the early 19th century. These chairs are notable for their quality timbers and balanced design, offering both presence and practicality. The warm patina of the mahogany and the clean, understated upholstery make them a versatile addition, equally suited to a traditional dining room or a more contemporary interior setting. Dimensions (approximate): Height: 84 cm (33 in) Width: 47 cm (18 ½ in) Depth: 50 cm (19 ¾ in) Seat height: 48 cm (19 in) Condition: Structurally very sound and sturdy. Frames retain an attractive colour and patina with only minor marks and surface wear in line with age. No loose joints or visible signs of repair. Upholstery in good, serviceable condition. The set has been carefully serviced, lightly cleaned, and wax-finished in the...
