Description

For sale, this fine example of a Livesley Powell & Co Lusterware Botanical Ironstone China jug, dating circa 1855. This fine example shows hardly any wear and just exhibits slight glaze crazing on the odd place. The jug is in undamaged original condition and would enhance any collection. Base with full impressed marks. Size approx. 17cm tall by 14cm long and 11cm wide. Price £195.00 including shipping to within the UK. According to Geoffrey Godden and Michael Gibson in Collecting Lusterware, this partnership ran from 1851 to 1865 being succeeded by Powell & Bishop. In addition to this botanical decorated jug, the firm also produced a selection of polychrome enamelled transferware patterns.
