Description

A Regency mahogany side table of elegant narrow form, fitted with two frieze drawers and raised on turned front legs with brass cup castors. Slim proportions and refined Regency lines make it well suited as a drawing room side table, small writing surface, or hall table. Subtle rebates to the rear frieze suggest the table may once have carried a narrow rear flap, though the present configuration is established, entirely functional and highly usable.

Presented in very good antique condition with a rich colour and minor surface marks consistent with age and use. Structurally sound, clean and ready to place in the home. English, circa 1825. H: 70.5 W: 103 D: 48 cm Height to underside of table: 59 cm
