

SA1169817

Finely Engraved French Silver Fish Knife by Henin & Cie, Belle Époque Period

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA1169817*Date of manufacture: 1900

Description

A superb French silver fish knife by Henin & Cie, Paris, late 19th to early 20th century. Executed in .950 fine silver, this elegant piece is richly decorated with finely engraved scrolling foliage and floral motifs across the shaped blade. The shell terminal is beautifully cast and crisply detailed, enhancing the sculptural quality of the handle. Stamped with the French Minerva mark (1st standard) and the maker's mark for Henin & Cie, one of the leading Parisian silversmiths of the period. Origin: France Maker: Henin & Cie Hallmarks: Minerva 1st standard (.950), maker's mark Dimensions: L 28.2 cm × W 4.7 cm Weight: 128.96 g / 4.14 oz Condition: Excellent, light surface wear commensurate with age A striking and highly decorative piece of antique silver, ideal for the collector of fine Continental flatware.

Seller Details

Touch of Time Antiques

Nottinghamshire United Kingdom

Tel: 07593 802248

International Tel: +44 7593 802248

