Description

A beautiful Edwardian ladies' chair dating from the early 20th century. Crafted from solid mahogany with elegant curved arms and finely turned back spindles. The seat has been newly reupholstered in a high-quality geometric blue fabric that complements the warm tone of the wood perfectly. This versatile piece would make a charming addition to a dressing table, writing desk, or reading corner. Structurally solid and in excellent overall condition with only minor age-related marks consistent with its history. Seat Height: 46 cm

Internal Ref: A062
