Description

Gustave Van Vaerenbergh (Belgian, 1873–1927) – Alabaster and Gilt Bust of a Maiden A beautiful early 20th-century bust by Gustave Van Vaerenbergh, depicting a serene maiden wearing a gilt tunic. Expertly executed in alabaster with delicate gilt bronze tunic, the figure rests on a rectangular marble base with canted corners. The piece is finely detailed, capturing Van Vaerenbergh's signature blend of classical elegance and Art Nouveau grace. Signed to the reverse "G. V. Vaerenbergh." Dimensions: 21cm (H) × 18cm; (W) × 9cm (D) Condition: Excellent original condition with light age wear consistent with material and age. A striking and highly decorative work by one of Belgium's most admired sculptors of the period — perfect for collectors of Art Nouveau sculpture and fine decorative art.
