Description

This splendid Victorian walnut throne chair embodies masterful craftsmanship and enduring elegance. Its solid walnut frame is paired with luxurious cream floral damask upholstery, pristine and untouched by marks or wear. The deep warmth of the wood contrasts beautifully with the fabric. Exquisite hand-carved detailing graces the arms and stretcher, showcasing the artisan's skill and lending a regal presence to the piece. It stands as a commanding focal point, where historical charm meets functional grace. With a generous seat height of 50 cm, this throne chair offers comfort alongside its stately silhouette, making it a distinguished addition to any interior.
