Description

These wonderful carved mahogany country house leather upholstered armchairs which have been hand dyed to a wonderful light honey colour. The back and seat cushions are feathered which makes the chairs extremely comfortable. The cushions are complimented by scroll armrests that are supported by carved mahogany legs, leading down to a hairy claw foot, to the centre of the frame is a carved shell. These chairs have been upholstered in the traditional manner with a fine quality hand dyed and antiqued leather hyde decorated with an individual solid brass nail studwork finish. These armchairs would compliment a lounge, study dining room, dressing room, library, or even a large kitchen.
