Description

This is an Antique Arts & Crafts Sideboard c1880-1900 made in Hambourg in Germany. I am under the presumption it made it to the United Kingdom before World War I. It is raised on a plinth base with shaped front frieze and quadrant moulding to the top edge. It has a pair of opening doors with carved floral upper panels. The central lock and key have an oval brass plate. The two drawers have large ornate brass handles with pierced back plates. The top has a low gallery rail with two large serving pull out slides above each drawer. it is 104 cms high 159 cms wide 64 cms deep
