Description

A rare painted pine carriage case made by one of the top London Makers. In as found condition, the lettering all original and untouched, the chest complete with working key and pull-out central shelf. The doors fitted with a top and bottom brass slip locks, with a main front lock for personal security, plus there are two threaded holes top and bottom of the case which align with the securing metal strap that would have received two threaded bolts for safe stowage. Provenance: Purchased from the Fairfax-Lucy family, of Charlecote Park Stratford Upon Avon fame, earlier this year. Height 92.5cm Length 96.5cm Width 65cm Sir Henry William Cameron-Ramsay-Fairfax-Lucy, 3rd Baronet (born Royal Leamington Spa) 1870 – 1944. Who fought in the Boer War and gained the rank of Major in the 2nd Life Guards. The oil painting illustrated shows Sir Henry Cameron Ramsay-Fairfax-Lucy, 3rd Baronet as a Major in the Life Guards, painted in full military uniform by Alfred Edward Borthwick. This painting was presented to the National Trust by Sir Montgomerie Fairfax-Lucy (his son) along with Charlecote Park and its chief contents in 1946. Two years after the death of his father.
