Description

A charming Edwardian beech side chair dating from around 1900. The chair features a simple yet elegant design with a carved seat panel decorated with a stylised floral motif, secured with brass studs. Turned front legs and stretcher add stability and a touch of traditional craftsmanship. The chair remains in very good condition with only light wear consistent with age, adding to its authentic character. Seat Height: 44 cm This versatile piece would make a lovely occasional chair, hallway seat, or decorative accent in a period or country-style interior.
