Description

Charming Edwardian occasional table crafted from solid mahogany, dating from the early 20th century. This elegant two-tier piece features a beautifully shaped top with serpentine edges and cabriole legs joined by a lower shelf for added stability and style. The warm tone of the mahogany and graceful proportions make it a perfect accent table for any living room, hallway, or reading corner. Its refined Edwardian design reflects the transition from late Victorian ornamentation to a more elegant and fluid form. A lovely example of Edwardian craftsmanship – both decorative and practical, with a timeless appeal.
