

SA1170204

19th century honey oak dresser

Price

GBP 2,350

| USD $3,174 | EUR 2,749

Item Reference: SA1170204

Date of manufacture: 1850

Dimensions

Height = 210 cm (82.7")

Width = 169 cm (66.5")

Depth = 42 cm (16.5")

Description

Here we have this early 19th century honey oak dresser. The lower base section with a series of drawers with their original turned knob handles and with a pot board below that is joined by the turned front legs to the front and square legs to the rear. The plate rack on the top with a series of shelves a boarded back and the original cup hooks. The dresser is the lovely honey colour and would have been the centrepiece of the family home, where it provided storage and a work area in the busy country kitchen. I like the charm of this dresser, and I like to imagine the family life that would have buzzed around it during its working life. A dresser really does add to a home, whether it is in a kitchen or used in a drawing room or hall. Key Features: • Genuine knob handles • Original plate rack • Beautiful honey colour, patina and grain • Turned baluster legs with the pot board • Detachable top for easy transportation • Strong and stable design Dimensions: • Length: 169cms wide cornice (66 1/2ins) • Depth: 42cms deep (16 1/2ins) • Height: 210cms (82 3/4ins) A fine example of traditional craftsmanship, this antique oak golden honey oak dresser offers both beauty and functional...

Seller Details

Hingstons of Wilton

The Old Bell House 2 Shaftesbury Road Wilton Salisbury Wiltshire
England SP2 0DR United Kingdom

Tel: 01722 742 263 or 0788 787 0569

International Tel: +44 1722 742 263 or +44 788 787 0569