Description

This is a very beautiful and slightly distressed antique Mahal carpet, with the hard to find ivory background colour. Using wonderful pale greens, blues and pinks for the all over design. A soft pink tone light border is a great contrasting colour to the ivory off-white background. Condition is distressed and some wear in areas, it is in good structural order with no holes or tears. A beautiful and very decorative antique carpet. Our underlay would aid the carpets condition greatly, as it stops the carpet moving around on the floor adding body to it.
