Description

Fine Pair of Late 19th/Early 20th Century Continental Bronze Ducks on Marble Bases – 21cm High A superb pair of late 19th-century Continental bronze ducks, beautifully modelled and cast with exceptional detail and quality. Each figure is mounted on an elegant rectangular marble plinth, adding weight and presence to the display. Although unsigned, the craftsmanship clearly indicates production from a top-tier foundry, with crisp detailing, fine surface texture, and rich patina throughout. Height: 21 cm Material: Bronze on marble bases Condition: Excellent antique condition, minor wear consistent with age A highly decorative and substantial pair, perfect for collectors of 19th-century bronzes, or as striking interior statement pieces.

Internal Ref: Jean/Lee 370
