Description

A fine set of six Victorian dining chairs dating from around 1880. Crafted in rich mahogany, each chair features an intricately carved top rail with floral and foliate detail, turned spindle supports, and elegant turned front legs. The seats have been recently reupholstered in a high-quality woven fabric, offering both comfort and durability while complementing the warm tone of the wood. Solid and well-proportioned, this set provides timeless elegance for a traditional dining room or period interior. Seat height: 45 cm The chairs are offered in very good condition, sturdy and ready for use. A beautiful example of Victorian craftsmanship.
