Description

A charming pair of oak chairs dating from the early 20th century, c.1920. Each chair features a slatted back, newly re-caned seat, and elegant barley twist front legs joined by stretchers for added strength. Crafted from solid oak with a rich patina, the chairs combine durability with traditional English style. Their simple yet refined design makes them perfect for a dining room, kitchen, or conservatory setting. Seat height: 46 cm. The chairs are offered in very good condition, sturdy and ready for immediate use. A lovely addition to any vintage or country-inspired interior.
