Description

A Rare 18th Century Cedar Side Table of fine small proportions and a wonderful colour. A superbly patinated four-piece top standing on well-turned baluster legs, a shaped frieze and moulded stretchers. The oak-lined drawer set within a double-beaded mould often associated with this period of furniture and retaining the original engraved handles. An extremely rare survivor, this table's fabulous colour, wonderful clean condition, and unusual timber of Cedar date back to the Queen Anne/ George I era. A real collector's piece. Circa 1715.
