Description

A diminutive glazed display cabinet with etched glass reading 'Relief Nibs & Fountain Pens, R. Esterbrook & Co'. R. Esterbrook & Co released the 'Relief' fountain pen c.1920-30, thus this cabinet can be accurately dated to that period. The oak frame supports a glass door, back and sides, with two thin removable drawers to the interior. The cabinet remains in a wholly untouched original condition. There are some signs of wear commensurate with age throughout as one would expect such as some light marking and scratching to the glass in areas. Key absent. A great looking cabinet of versatile proportions, ideal for everything from vanity items to desk or table display.
