Description

Massive Georgian Welsh Antique Elm Rack Very well made in solid Welsh elm woods, this huge 18th century antique rack was originally made to dry oat cakes, due to the size, probably for a large country estate. Beautifully made and very strong. Would have been hung parallel to the floor like a hanging kitchen utensil and pan rack, which it could be used for now in a large country kitchen. It does look amazing just leant up against a wall too, for linens and towels. Welsh and dating to around 1750. Dimensions Height: 245cm (97.22") Width: 122cm (48.41") Depth: 9cm (3.57")
