Description

We are delighted to offer this lovely antique Victorian enamel gold ring made c.1880. The ring features an unmistakably Victorian and striking design with a light blue enamel cabochon and star motif. The ring is set in antique 9ct solid gold and presents a wonderful structure whereby the gold protrudes from the enamel in the centre with a hand-engraved starburst effect and a single pearl in the centre to accentuate the overall design. This not only culminates in a lovely aesthetic but also is representative of the high degree of craftsmanship of the era and distinguishes itself from contemporary pieces. The ring's shank features a simple yet elegant bifurcated design as if to lift up and present the top dome - this allows for the ring to be worn comfortably whilst also presenting the enamel top in its best light to be seen from all angles. Such a combination of fine goldsmithing, enamelling and engraving makes for an exceptionally stylish choice for antique jewellery lovers. Whether it be for wearing as a contrasting piece of jewellery among other pieces or as a bold single ring, such a piece is bound to be a conversation starter and a wonderful way to express your p...
