Description

Antique 19th century decorative brass jardiniere, very well made and of good quality. This striking piece stands proudly on sturdy, shaped legs and features beautifully detailed decorative motifs throughout, showcasing the fine craftsmanship of the 19th century. The rich golden tone of the brass gives it a warm and elegant presence, making it a standout feature in any setting. Versatile in use, this piece can serve not only as a jardiniere for displaying plants or flowers but also as a decorative coal bucket or a stylish storage solution. Its timeless design and practical size make it suitable for both traditional and contemporary interiors. A very rare and desirable example, full of charm and character, in good solid condition throughout. A stunning and functional accent piece — the perfect addition to any home!
