

SA1170778

19th Century Set of Eight William IV Period Rosewood Dining Chairs

Price

GBP 1,000

| USD $1,351 | EUR 1,170

Item Reference: SA1170778Date of manufacture: 19th Century

Description

Set of eight William IV period rosewood dining chairs dating the 1830s , featuring elegantly carved backrests and centre rails, showcasing intricate detailing typical of the period . They have drop-in seats upholstered with red fabric with ornate floral patterns. The chairs stand on fluted legs. The chairs are in good, solid condition with no movement to the joints , the chairs show reassuring signs of age and use with age related marks as to be expected. The upholstery is in serviceable condition, showing wear consistent with regular use, and can be enjoyed as it is. Alternatively, we can reupholster the chairs in a fabric of your choice for an additional £300. Dimensions: Height: 81.5 Depth: 41.5 Width: 47 seat height: 47 cm

Seller Details

School House Antiques

Hertfordshire United Kingdom

Tel: 07498 776 944

International Tel: +44 7498 776 944