Description

A beautiful 19th-century Egyptian Revival bronze bust, signed by Paul Auguste Gagne, a French artist known for exhibiting at the Paris Salons from 1865. Wonderfully detailed and full of character, this piece captures the charm of the Egyptian Revival style that was so popular in the late 1800s. It has a lovely aged patina and shows some light wear typical of its age, but it remains in good, presentable condition and displays beautifully. Dimensions: Height: 25.5 cm Depth: 12 cm Width: 12 cm
