Description

A truly stunning 18th century burr elm and oak oval table - one of the best we've ever had in stock. The richly figured burr elm top has a deep, glowing patina and wonderful natural movement that only centuries of age can create. This rare table features two drawers - one at the end and one along the side - adding both practicality and charm. It stands on a strong stretcher base for excellent stability and presence. A remarkable statement piece that comfortably seats up to 12 people, perfect for those who love to entertain in style. Full of warmth, character and timeless beauty, this table will instantly elevate any interior with its soul and authenticity.
