Description

A beautifully crafted single tea caddy made from fine Harewood, showcasing exceptional craftsmanship and timeless elegance. The front features a striking oval inlay, while the lid is adorned with a finely detailed shell motif, both highlighting the skillful artistry of the piece. Delicate boxwood banding runs throughout, adding contrast and refinement to the warm tones of the Harewood veneer. The caddy retains its original hinged lid and comes complete with a key, fitting neatly into the small escutcheon at the front. Perfect for collectors or lovers of fine antiques, this caddy embodies the understated sophistication of 19th-century design. Materials: Harewood and boxwood Age: c.1820 Dimensions: Length: 12cm Width: 10cm Height: 12cm
