Description

A superbly proportioned wing back armchair, generously scaled and beautifully crafted. The carved walnut legs feature elegant C-scroll detailing, lending a touch of classic refinement. Upholstered in a striking grey tartan fabric, the chair combines traditional charm with contemporary flair. The fabric is clean and intact, with no rips or holes, and complements the warm tones of the timber. Structurally sound and free from creaks or wobbles, the chair offers a comfortable seating position thanks to its broad back, shapely arms, and well-judged seat height. Minor imperfections consistent with age and use only enhance its character. A stylish and versatile piece that would elevate any interior, from a country house library to a modern design studio.
