Description

Type of artwork: Original Antique Watercolour (With a bonus Antique Etching verso) Artist and Signature: Colonel Harold Percy Ditmas (1853–1937) of York Colonel Harold Percy Ditmas (1853–1937) was a solicitor and auxiliary officer who commanded the Durham Artillery from 1895, later serving with distinction in the Boer War and World War I. He was granted the honorary rank of Colonel in 1901. A member of a long-established York military family, Ditmas was also a skilled watercolourist. Often signing his works "H.P.D.", he produced a series of topographical views from the 1870s to the early 20th century, recording Clifton, York, Shoeburyness, and other places connected with his life and service. Today his paintings are valued both as decorative works and as important historical records of vanished or altered locations. Subject: Charming watercolour titled 'Old Shops in Petergate York' Approximate age of artwork: Dated 1908 Is the artwork Framed or Mounted: Mounted on original backing (unframed). Condition Report: The watercolour remain detailed and atmospheric, with some age toning and handling marks as expected from 19th century works on paper. Please see photograph...
