Description

Fine set of five Geo.III silver salts , made by the most revered maker of the period, Paul Storr. Of rectangular form on a plain pedestal foot, these salts have a heavy, imposing, gadroon and shell border. The plain bodies are crested, and the interiors have a good colour gilt wash. The quality of these is everything expected from this maker. This is about as desirable as these items get. London. 1819. Paul Storr. Length of each 11cm Total weight 25 Troy oz/778gm
