Description

A fine Regency mahogany cellarette of a fabulous faded colour. The dome shaped lid and front decorated with a central panel of well figured flame mahogany veneer bordered with rosewood stringing and a mahogany crossbanding. The interior having ten mahogany bottle dividers, raised on turned and reeded tapering legs with original brass cup castors. The exceptional quality of this piece, along with the style of the leg and base mold, strongly suggests that it was crafted by Gillows of Lancaster.
