Description

Ancient Ushak carpet with faded soft pink dyes, dark faded green tones and grey hues, woven in Anatolia in the late 19th with a large scale design. This carpet has wear and lower areas of pile are but structurally strong and with our strong anti-slip underlay this would make it durable on the floor for another 100 years. A wonderful faded look and a very decorative antique Ushak carpet available to be viewed at home or at our showroom by appointment, please make contact in your preferred way, we look forward to helping you soon. Ushak carpets were woven in Western Anatolia which was one of the largest rug production areas since the Ottoman Empire. Their designs tend to be more open than Persian rugs and use soft natural dyes. The faded green border colour works so well with the soft reds and muted golden tones.
