A beautiful French late 19th century pate sur pate table lamp in the Neoclassical style. The celadon porcelain body of the lamp has delicate pate sur pate pictures of a classical female holding flowers to one side, and foliate and swag design to the other, with Greek key design. The lamp is flanked with bronze female term figures and stands on a bronze and black slate base with a single switched bulb holder to the top. At some time converted from oil to electricity, the lamp has been newly rewired, PAT tested and is in working order. The lampshade is not included.
